

FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATIONGeneva, 1st February 2022Accuro London expanding its offering to regulated Trust & Fidiciary services

Accuro is continuing to grow and define itself as an innovator in the private trust sector by expanding its London offering to regulated trust and fiduciary services and bringing on board a Chief People Officer for the Group.

Mustafa Hussain has been appointed as Managing Director of the Accuro London office, having joined Accuro in January 2019 from Taylor Wessing LLP, where he was a partner specialising in private wealth. Mustafa will also continue to bring his strategic insights and legal expertise to corporate governance, and will continue to co-chair the Accuro Group Board.

The appointment of Rebecca Hone, as a Chief People Office, underlines the growth agenda and the importance of people. Rebecca Hone has joined Accuro, in London, from Bupa where she delivered HR and people strategy within the insurance business, and led on a number of change and transformation projects. She brings extensive HR and management consultancy experience in financial services. Rebecca will also be joining the holding board to bring an additional perspective to strategic prioritisation, execution and decision-making for the group.

CEO and Co-Founder, Xavier Isaac commented, “Our people are our greatest asset, so the time is right to invest in a Chief People Officer to further integrate our people strategy with the business strategy. Rebecca brings a strong track record of strategy development and execution. Investing in Accuro’s London offering is a natural evolution of our organic growth strategy, and enables us to better serve our clients in this key location. I am delighted to confirm that this will be delivered under Mustafa’s leadership. This is a very exciting time for Accuro.”

[End of the Press Release]For more information please contact:

Xavier Isaac, Tel. 0041 22 807 2000
Accuro Trust (Switzerland) S.A., 1, Rue du Pré-de-la-Bichette, 1202 Genève

